

Why choose HMH Legal?

If you are a foreign company that is currently pursuing credit sales or a debt collection in Mexico, it is essential that expert advice be sought from a Mexican lawyer who specializes in credit and debt collection matters, with experience and expertise in international commercial law.

At HMH Legal, we firmly believe, and have clearly proven, that we have the capabilities needed to effectively handle international commercial matters, which in turn makes us the most reliable source for credit management and collection of debt relating to international accounts. We are the only Law firm in Mexico exclusively devoted to these kinds of matters.

We hope you'll give us the opportunity to help you, and we look forward to a trustworthy relationship between us.

Sincerely yours,

Romelio Hernández

Question:

Want to start making credit sales in Mexico but are a little bit afraid of not getting paid?

Already have problems getting paid and need someone reliable to collect your debt?

Do you have the right partner to help secure your business in Mexico?

What we do and how we help companies

HMH Legal is a Law firm that specializes in credit management and debt collections in Mexico. Our main goal is to help foreign companies avoid uncollectible receivables on their credit sales in Mexico. This is achieved through our services to minimize risks and to collect money for our clients. Once our services are retained, HMH Legal will help you achieve the following:

1. To reduce the risk of credit sales turning uncollectible by designing and implementing an easy and reliable system of sales.
2. To have the most reliable collection agency that will guarantee the best chances of collecting your money at the most reasonable cost.
3. To have a professional team of lawyers that will only recommend and initiate legal actions that carry real possibilities of success.

Companies we serve and transactions we handle

HMH Legal is a unique Law firm that serves as the credit and collections department for small and medium companies pursuing credit sales in Mexico. Our client list and representative cases include creditor companies from most industries located in the Americas, Europe, Asia, etc. Transactions that our firm helps secure or collect range from USD 1,000 to 10 million.

How does HMH Legal differ?

Our firm differs from all law firms because of our specialty focus and capabilities, which allow us to provide many benefits, including proven successful and reliable legal advice arising from our wide experience and proprietary research in debt collections; flexible and affordable fees thanks to our unique structure and different fee arrangements; guaranteed ethical conduct and quality service; country-wide coverage and strong partnerships with local attorneys for strategic advantage at reduced costs; and the necessary expertise and focus in one area of law for success assurance.
